

Beginning

Gaze into the mirror seek the truth within Which is kept in the heart your light will shine Your truth known When dawn is upon its hour ushering the birth heavens flower Harmony, peace, love
replenish life
As one ends, the one begins those who awake find the warmth of love Brightly-immersed souls

Relax with Gravity

We become only to dream our desire to be If dreams may place humanity in space then dreams may burgeon love's grace

One

I find the thought
one
the power extraordinarily delicious If only all understood the power of one the truth desperately hidden from our eyes As one
deciding now we will not act with fear we will not act with hate we will grace all life we will live within love beckoning the realization love's will here on earth We are one life
a uniquely-blended creation
and the gift to create what we will Divided the winning continues our emptiness growing Shallow vision parades sheep driven aimlessly over the abyss Helpless souls scattered chasing endless phantom truths bent by the lie burned in their eyes Each proclaim certainty augmenting the ever-growing chasm placed amidst all humanity Our definition
life
the vision's break point yet reached
We must begin
We must breathe
We must drink
We must eat
We live as one decorated by time
and the tongues
of our history, only

yet reached
We feel pain
We feel guilt
We feel joy
We feel love
We feel as one
we must be brightly lighting our way Understand we are home Empty our minds
find our meaning
we are life
we are love Within the one bound in thought the power of the one becomes one life
one love

We are not Chosen

As long as we believe something must die
so we may live
could we truly be alive

I believe
it's time

As the day begins true light fills our eyes harmony's foundation solidifies peace reaches from our feet through the sky

Love the energy produced with our lives

We choose

Time to Wake Up

What does it mean
to be Energy desiring Our dreams
we come to see Just energy
and the will to be When we shed the façade
we see
Love
will be
If I opened my mind would what I saw drive me with fear Might I ponder how far love appears Connecting to life awaiting to be I see the dawn beyond our darkest night Let love's energy be our light

Awaken

Let go of me
Let go of me
When the me is no longer seen Open
Full
will we be

Heaven is Here

Heaven
word spoken releasing vision Understand
our path
Heaven
sculpted painted shaded by judgment God gave us life the journey
billions of years We have what lay before us relish in the sea sky forest mountain desert Life exists infinite levels Which life may account more Life understood as the whole has only one measure our father
God
Life
stands not alone
all life
generating the whole Heaven
the field given for life to grow flourish and evolve
If we understood earth to be our garden
heaven

Would our view change Would our behavior change Standing where we are today may we find the courage necessary to live in harmony with all life Our minds play a pivotal role As we stand may the human race develop the skill
not to kill May we decide there are some illusions we need not to live well and happy Heaven is not the absence of nor the inclusion of a few principles Heaven is awareness
and humble understanding that all life begins and ends with life Our gift of reason our gift of thought our ability to create places the burden
on humans Please stop seeking heaven as some altered existence Seek to follow our brother's principle love our brothers love our sisters respect all life God as offered us an opportunity a world that supports an abundance of life Earth is God's gift to human evaluation

I Pray

Anger toys tempting my soul
The world I see boils my blood Name used not for life but fear
death Father
my life
lays bare the energy growing I will be your love realized
I seek your grace
I seek your will My soul belongs as one with you
may true love's energy be my guide Father
I pray
Love

She Speaks Eternal

She speaks to me
I miss the point because the point belongs not to me
The less I see the more shall we be I am sorry
love
is what I will Sandstorm
wind
sea Mother
gentle will be the tide All gathered energy never wasted Energy we will always be

Free

I am here
to minister to grace to create
Life
This is our truth
our soul
the mind
A tear releases finding recycled tree Words bequeathed
my gift to thee Never before have I felt so free
The energy
Love

Thank You

Thank You

Blessed

have I come to see

Thank You

An abundance of life struggling to be

There is one life expressed within endless possibility

When we choose

one life may we be

Thank You

The Mark

What is a mark What definition
may we find What will be the mark of thee
Love is our energy when we live and let be What mark may be
Love's mark has no cost given always freely
Our mark
the key

Enlightenment

Enlightened souls
as old as stars
few as we begun growing
building
offering passage fear to love
If you see it it will be done
an energy to come

Rivers of Light

Down my soul rivers of light travel
waiting to be At which level will we accept love's will sets us free
How many more wars
How many more lives What for do we sell our selves How many empty souls fueled with lies will light our night We may connect
within love Welcome silence allow stillness Release

What I See

When I close my eyes many worlds do I see life's energy flowing
to remove the me allowing life to be
including all Our creator manifested infinitely Worlds
wrapped in harmony cradled in peace lived within love
my mind with these worlds
will be
I am here to remember
there is one path
to remember love sets us free
The energy created
with mindful humility

Life Sings

Bloviating carcinogens fracture the sky Zeros and ones fill our lives Wind whispers truth Life's vision beating its drum Sweet music
praying
our service
Life sings
one mind
will guide Creating

For What Do We Live

Wild blows the whisper of God Life commands our attention
our humility our respect
to all life God whispers
the mind
may conquer the me
we may command love's will to be Yes
you and me

Heat

The heat makes me scream Anger flows Anger grows Needing release needing peace Would I find that which I seek with the demise of all which differ from my belief Is that how I will create
I must release the beast that makes me feast me
To find the way there must be no hesitation The me that I see
the me
needs to be released needs to be at peace The way forward not built on fear Remember to Judge not Remember to
Love
thy enemies
When we release the me this may be

Butterfly

My heart feels churning turning caterpillar to butterfly metamorphosis begun
I am not to leave as I entered ever searching seeking grace
I seem to have known
oh so long my mind holds my truth I create that which I will to come I see
just what I wish Definition binds thought Releasing definition endless possibilities may become
I will
to see love Every interaction perceived received with
and
open acceptance of all

Here We Stand

This is where it will happen This is God's playground There is no there it has always been here Those who hope to see God's message to be stand in silence shall we existing not for the me existing for we all life
A true master leaves nothing behind Oh so close do I find this time
Those who hear shall begin to believe shall begin to be Creating the tide Creating a world blessed in harmony enveloped in peace
lived with love

Memo to Me

I am to go where few have been
I
are the same life becoming life just the same God I do love God is life
yes
one in the same My neck stretches
please
I don't want to die I write as I become your chance to see I fear
never more
I love
for ever What I believe matters not Life's energy dictates our beginning our end Life's will known Life's will to come

Elemental

Element root to come no me may root see root must be
There is no volume
There is infinity Each sparkling star a universe within our universe
A possibility life to see Thought provokes definition binds What we believe
our nature
It is what we believe that we see
We may see no other way Element to come Emptied minds allowing

Abyss Bliss

I peer over the abyss I scream with ecstasy
I see the end
no more will fear guide my thought all definition fades My reason for being now begins the energy I will to become the energy of love My addiction to the me that me which fears allowing anger hate pain Releasing
letting go
letting be my step last awaits Over life's heart floating
I join
I become
just life
just love I openly accept love is the energy created
So many songs so many words
so many souls wishing love
That which we feed grows
That which we give thought
fear will no longer guide our thought
thank you
life's will be done

Can You Spare Some Change

This is it here is your change No longer will we sacrifice life
Truth's awareness shines fear's control withers We create our worlds with belief it is our faith with which we believe that pours belief's foundation structuring our worlds We are raised with definition building reality shared definition shared reality
We may choose our definition It is we who through awareness define When we define
generating meaning
fear as natural naturally fear becomes Then we define fear that which must be overcome
with all its possibility With fear we create the sacrificial lamb the illusion so real the feeling so strong obscured truth is
All life
singular expressions of one energy

Sweet Energy

can you imagine an energy so pure as to create worlds blessed with diversity purpose and giving
understanding the connectivity a peacefully-sculpted mosaic
where would I be with no tree
I hope you understand
I hope you see Life's energy travels one road to exist we must live within harmony we are blessed to believe to see through awareness
we choose
I beg you see we create what comes to be our reality
we create our world we are responsible for what we see we may choose
our world enveloped within
we choose
yet it's life which will dictate life seeks balance life seeks
our choice
our place to come oh sweet energy

It Must Be All

gifts bestowed most beloved dancing merrily
sharing my day
awareness
gifts are these requiring thanks my veneration humans touching energy generating living willingly sculpting life creating worlds humbling my joy to life upon me life's creations bringing joy to the day reverence admiration gratitude share do I
to my wife children grandchild
I yearn to be the love always with which we begin

I began this thought with the awareness of just how much energy and joy that I experience with those closest to my heart. I am unclear as to why, it seems my purpose, but I must stretch the concept beyond its birth. I get the emotion, I understand its high. Imagine the will, to extend my love, my admiration, and my gratitude to all.

Blessed We Are

how blessed we are
we understand not I am aware therefore
I may yet here now awareness penetrates all I am all I will ever be is life a singular expression my weight no measure
just life
wild awareness plays drawing our worlds we are aware so we may structure design that which we see
life's design blessed may we find
our world
when we reach the point when we reach
then one may see we are all just life just one energy

He was Right

I stand at the gate
I scream wail
I can't believe we've gone as far Will I pass without birth realized Souls scattered worried sick afraid How astray led we are
If it were the way I would make it all go away What would that make me Strange that it is
is what we see This world crying our earth desires harmony our skies pine peace our rivers yearn love Longing
I hear sweat joyful song Our world sings to us sharing
whispering
the way

Believe

create future without past

I am She

she has spent my entire experience attempting to wake me she begs my obedience she desires my love
my life
when we are as one our truth shines life in harmony life in peace life within love no word may encompass no word may lay claim the gift realized
manifested as me so if I choose
I may awake
I may live as she I may live free I may simply be addressing all energy

fear does not exist unless we see it
love does not exist
to see we must believe what we choose to see is what will be this is the gift this is our purpose evolving with each rotation searching seeking our truth we arrive at our destination as we begin to believe as we begin to see with each rotation life draws near life sets our stage will the seas bleed red will the sky cry fire will the earth open engulfing all
you must believe I see the seas bleed harmony I see the sky cry peace I see the earth open engulfing all within love I here your cries
I understand why we have been led this way
bound to fear we start to believe right wrong good bad we believe that to conquer must be the way

he cried
I am here to share our creator's grace we need no law
we need no rule these are judgments tool
we need welcome life
we need
we need
give to life from the emptiness that surrounds our space one energy beget life all life manifested at the core our essence life flows from life

Mirror Gazing

standing wide eyed
mystified my gaze deepens dismissing the familiar pulled deeper into the soul I transverse my universe ending at the beginning then beginning stretched across the soul's horizon I find that I am that I am not
I am just energy choosing what I believe within the depth
I am one with the river a flowing energy
carrying the soul
tasting smelling hearing believing twisted my focus folds I now stand at river's portal space and time collapse my image appears dancing at water's edge our vision built with definition forged by belief my balance fades disappearing within water's end my image distorted by ripples in time awaking
the image before me appears fogged with fear to have experienced our truth now observing what we have become what we have created a tear pours from my soul I beg life's forgiveness a tear runs from my soul accepting responsibility the message complete a tide will turn our experience in the balance we may join life's grace or return to the earth dust blowing wild in the wind

we are meant to be this is no accident this is life's gift we stand at the abyss we must choose

We Dig Deeper

I push
I dig deeper the grave no longer shallow messages pound the soul promised hopeful salvation I dance with Dante
I sip the rose a fine wine
build a sinful soul
manifest evil
make us fear these are finely-devised controls we are not puppets manipulated by the puppeteer we are life manifested we are years
years evolution have we chosen this that we see
yes
we have been handled masterly we have been led away I have always questioned I have always asked how what where why perhaps the rebel perhaps the lie
I throw caution to the wind I allow sight to penetrate deep within I stand poised
I stand aware
I have seen the day

God is our father we are blessed with life nothing more remember
is a word to understand
to know
the soul must commune knowing

See My Smile

you see me smile
energy
painfully polite
my attempt at penitence you are as you
in my mind an energy defined how we are greeted an attempt past our shells walls so impenetrable
so hard to find trust built on fear weighs down the soul I don't know the day
yet I see the way communion
our realization
that which we give shines our light an energy
willfully polite

Less Me More We

we may not be when defined
the me
around the me space
time collapsing
becoming focused reality particles billions
our energy when I live as we a singular life transcending reaching touching our core the less I see of the me the more may I be an energy in harmony an energy at peace an energy living love traveling further faster an expanding universe this energy
this way
I will to release
energy
choosing to define
time
an evolving reality based on the we and less on the me

Storm Trooper

you see
I know
I have been blessed asked to know all sin what I find blows my mind truth escapes
I take it all in swallowing
releasing
blind even shuttled to another land tools used to forget me tools used to be hell
it was called a peace pipe this is only one connection only one way to be tell me tell me now that which is wrong definition's illusion strong
I pray its release dismantling
fear knowing peace
these are words only
are definition
you are my father
your will to be

down to the river where we become one our energies flowing the picture
imagine billions of particles bouncing connecting releasing
drifting through space
tumbling falling cascading
head over heels from on all high
through fields of grass particles sliding, rubbing, touching moments that become chemically-etched experiences our chance energy choosing definition our dawn becomes
I am
by virtue of life

Forward

these are our darkest hours w-holy divided truth desperately twisted realizing fears wish standing cowardly
found limp peering oddly
at life's backdrop
there is one way forward we have become our own enslavers bending to the will of fear greed
it's melancholy flavor seasoned to our taste I fall inward questioning that which I have become struggling energy seeking faith truth the way we are pinned beneath our laws our rules jealously guarding fool's gold we did not receive this gift to fight, kill and take these words before you form a vision based on definition what creature are we creating that which we will this will be our finest hour those who choose and become releasing our bonds freeing our minds allowing our truth to bloom we are gathered here a home joined joyfully in spirit releasing the past peacefully beckoning

our new age giving valued sharing valued balance valued allowing all life to live we received this gift to give to share to balance to celebrate our life with life this way forward

Fall

have you decided ride life over the fall
a dead stop found not till bottom's steel edge one's faith revealed she won't cast you out he won't throw you away allow truth to penetrate to live with God takes active thought

are letters awaiting allowing definition belief faith for those who feel who know the time now begin the awaking light penetrates the fog gathered about our minds a blissful harmony
stunning skies dressed with blues, purples, reds peace now reins our energies shining bright experiencing the gift
our amber glow sharing giving living
love
God
Love will be done

M M W

hell
as it all been wrong
I know
you are my father
you are our father twisting we seek to ease missing altogether the meaning when are ease challenges the balance
harmony
when we step beyond
becoming
life's end we may no longer claim our rightful place it's not about being saved it's about our evolution it's about what we choose to become life begets life as life
one

So far Away

why do we keep you so far away why do we believe that we are not the same
a soul confessing
yes
you are why I am here
you are my father no
I'm not special
I just believe what is found within building blocks
am I blind so is life that which is divine please fill me please guide my thought please allow grace to become I willfully give that which we call life for the awaking for our chance to become it has been written so shall it be done if I may define then it may be fill me
fill my life life is our creator why do we chase away
life
why do we keep you

12 String

guitar string sweet vibration
reaching deep within touching playfully the core
emotion joined with definition my mind's playground the mind's role blessed with life
blessed with definition the mind brings to light our thought
our world
the energy
our chemical message to the world
this is our truth

A Timid Night

please take me
please allow
I don't remember
I know
you are me and I you stars imploding
creating
our singularity
space collapsing splitting from stardust did we become we are energy that which is life a sculpted expression shared

How

the loss of the perceived fear grinds beating back my wish of love
fear twists making cruel the sane fear excites pushing emotion
to anger then hate killing slowly
fear ignites blasting cracking leading away from life fear blinds making false
truth
allowing darkness to fill life
fear
how to let go all I thought to be declining which my eye sees
releasing
becoming just life
let's continue to search let's continue to expand life's consciousness here now
we exist
life allowed to be not a twist of fate a well-prepared recipe life evolving to come forth gradually into being

EMR 1/12/2012

On My Knee's

to my knees fall do I I pray
awareness
harmony
I pray
peace
love
I know
there are more who see our time soon willed to be near communion shall begin energy connected
a singular energy a singular mind a singular will
becoming
all life
all energy
as it should be engaged all living celebrating
life

Rhythm

beat beat beat
beat
beat beat
beat
stamping approval music has music will
allowed am I within music's beat to construct visions that I wish
told not what to see
I am allowed to be feel feel the beat we are created to be free yes free not held by emotion not chained
by the me
release
release
I dare you
be free
smile at every one you see give at every chance you have share with all your life become my dream

Wave Life's Flower

I will share my smile I will wave life's flower
I willingly kneel
bent in devotion
praying love's will
the dawn
truth
assimilated
we are creators
we bring to life
that which
our thought provokes
we are
the best that we see
we are
the evil that we see
with active engagement or passive abandonment we may believe
it is our will
it is not
we are home
we are not

Weeping

I cry
weep choices I've made time brings to light decisions thought pronounced lost what might I have thought life's lily
longing
I know the lie
I began did I do I I struggle blood stands hallowed emotion called love divides may I ask must future have a past seek new meaning
release
life proclaimed without judgment

Self

I found myself within the poetry of life I find myself stationed because life chose to share I pray
understanding
our choice
we may beckon within our actions
our desire realized no other way I wish to bring words gifts seated within the pace of life through time's portal the truth
we exist
we are life
wired for balance homeostasis balanced finding peace happiness
love
the gift
I see your doubt
I see your fear
I forgive let go
release
there is no other way the poison disease within our mind may not pass that which fills our heart
our desire
our world

Avowal

I have felt you calling me pulling me back from the abyss asking me to experience life's source
the core
the word
all its meanings word hard to defend when I share that your wish is my command that I understand I am your child
we are your children that all life flows from source queer looks vile remarks fear becoming anger creating hate why do your children
choose to kill
choose to judge
choose to fear
how many children must die before we believe that we decide belief in love

Love for the Children

I beg forgiveness those times my energy manifests pain a tender lesson humility
I am my world's God I don't mean that my thought applied
molecules focused defined
I beg forgiveness my love
life
my gift
my truth
sharing
caring giving repelling the fear placed before my eyes learning that what I was has I begun is all I need be

Arrived

I arrived
free
a soul blessed
just to be
to define what I hear touch taste smell
a traveler within time particles thoughts
our truth
is our intersection with our world what are thought wills to be what I choose to manifest we present to the world a defined energy our beliefs do they celebrate
do they offer harmony do they praise peace do they live love
our belief

TWBNK

We are here not as kings rulers of life
as servants
here for life
Our reward
ability
chasing the experience living the dream to touch hear
believe

There will be no kings

Your Welcome

the one jumped starting the fall pushing down
I push up light knowledge what it must be head first
I dive
for you
the fall
my simple dream
cascading
limb over limb free fall blood gathered at the back fear piled upon breaking reaching the core folding bending stretched across time space
all energy
all life
lived as one tumbling rocking soul riding river's energy the beginning
one of love

I Will

I love my brothers I love my sisters with each thought my smile appears we share
the same mother
life
I love my mother
I will learn love
for all the ability to choose we may not be carried our travel through space
our expression
our energy bestowed
our world
when I close the eyes I see one glowing energy yellows
pale reds turquoise blues flowing gliding glowing bright
awaiting expression possibilities I choose all in harmony
all in peace living love
I will
love
for all

Surprise

surprised not by what we show ourselves to be I strain to believe
an energy
willing to take willing to create
pain
energy
dis-eased by fear asked to decided I must choose a path as I become I find the energy from which we evolve
awaking
omnipotent-ly alive feeling all energy points connecting all beings connecting all love's foundation forged deeply within each being slipping past that day dismissing fear the enlightened realization all are one

Let It All Go

free from what what enslaves me what binds me to a position
a place in time what moment created pain washing tears bless the soul
like a breath energy gathered energy released moments chemically etched touching our body experience trip
take the fall
let go
let go
beget
harmony
peace

Smoke House Blues

have ever you been trapped
held in the concrete restricting flow we seek guidance we seek assurance fearful of our failure we lose sight
belief
we question our truth believing we must live this way great energies suggest surrender
trust allow receive our mother
our father
never ever harm us would they we are simply manifestations their energy
life
awareness
ability
to know
our God

Um

awaking
one small fiery red amber glowing growing
becoming the soul's energy becoming love
I believe
so I see love flowing connecting all energy allowing all to be free

Layers Peeled Away

I love God
I am love
I am God release the definition if we understand that all life is one that we are all life then we are all one
the dream was one of butterfly and man we appear to the eye separate individuated
am I that which my eye sees
a singular manifestation
as I peel away layers
layers
enlightened soul allowed to be absolutely free

H D Y G T H

my thought exactly I start with thought my definition my observation attempting communication heaven begins from within a steady walk
harmony
peace
bringing forth
love
it's been called jihad crusade our evolution our wish
who we are our core our source
take a point apply focus all light
all energy
at one point
thought
creation

How do you get to heaven

I love you
please forgive me
I know
I hurt you
I love you
please forgive me
thank you
I love you
all I have
is the energy
please forgive me
all we have
love
release
allow receive
love
