i have nothing to be
there is no purpose
i know all

i hold on i hold to what what makes me am i all i've thought design of mine
running scattering away hanging desperately onto grace's illusion how powerful

think
think love
think acceptance if i must hold fixed particles perpetually within manifest space
i am willfully holding acceptance

goodbye
hello
drifting sideways upside down backward
i just then i trip
life
how do i identify with body with mind
why
it's like reaching inward from beyond grabbing pulling
the mind
stretch the canvas obtuse artistic energies blend forming worlds
i then just trip

accept release

prayer is thought meditation is thought knowing i am is thought

thoughts power belief
space then time manifest possibilities conscious awareness we create the wave our thought traveling the void reflected back

of the broken
torn asunder grasping the tinder
of stars souls
trying throughout the drama to remain calm again endless expression

tripping hard
i am today time

beaten to the core believing any of this has permanence

my mind takes and brings moments held together with focus generating energies radiant image energy endlessly expressing radioactive luminance

radiate acceptance
release

before you
you are our eyes do see ask what is going on what am i projecting jesus is of profound significance to me my earliest stories were of him when i read regarding buddha i knew i needed to understand deeper soon after that hinduism life comes from life thank you krishna propelling mind landing objectless unanchored free

i'm telling you i saw things a motorcycle driving the wrong way on 25 then going to help a truck in need on the south bound side two well dressed women running south on the north bound side one attempting desperately to grasp who might of been a friend it was about an energy reflecting inward wondering why i had projected this energy into the system what about this me offers such obtuse angles to this place wana talk about shape shifting rules are a conceptual container setting expectational parameters why do we need such containers

i just started to think how do i craft ask what is life and of which should be less what rests upon body rest within mind minds possibility awareness of the infinite consciousness wandering walk early am thank you

don't look outward for peace peace arisen within rise's outside the energy we radiate travels conscious universe reflecting back our gift allow this thought to penetrate

trust me
i'd rather forget that need which keeps me here let go of the stories create moment by moment acceptance
release the thought
move on allow and be

i may not attach a concept to any living being that i have not already attached to the self

we are trying to understand i watched a humming bird evacuate this morning seemed so much like me to move within the illusion as one entanglement more about observing than defining allowing life to simply unfold the disease we see comes from within

who am i to say what this universe has for me there are infinite possibilities

injecting my mind radiating thought there is nothing that comes to harm but the thought of harm writing now i drift into the framework removing thought from mind sorry thought about schools

we teach concepts realities we have come to believe what about teaching acceptance balance that we are radiant being's expressing life

what do i try to drowned out i guess it would have to be thought just live there are infinite realities we may proof
what is held binds

if you see evil outside the self ask the self why realize
you are

what conceptual wars might exist

i am

we do not create consciousness we are a possibility of consciousness with the gift of awareness what might we be when the self releases into one when i believe i am you
you are me
spontaneous connection pulling into one all thought of other disappears effortlessly entanglement begins to balance without thought or action what is seen as struggle becomes balance
all life reaches for same actualization of being

this morning's thought i sat in a meeting listening to a man i respect

i saw his vision of health care funny i must have been numb
i remember the feeling creating the vision
decisions of health
a balance upon some sheet how as i am
do i find self
i should have been screaming yelling are you fucking kidding me how much have we spent fighting our enemies if i did not believe as i do i would just end it
forget the joke straight up end it all so i woke up in this place looking around trying to decide if i should stay

for the life of me i do not know what keeps me here don't get me wrong
i don't believe in death i just want to leap conceptually why do i war within the self
numerous battles cast
ill radiating disease the myriad battle fields of despair weeping with the quiet realization what i give i receive

wow
how did i get here
thank you
thankful always
be

so what you're saying if we may measure it it may be

i am trying to leave without leaving

i am trying to be without being

as i am trying i may not leave nor may i be

it's when i release
no concepts too tangle realities flow
radiant energetic rivers dropping gracefully over falls cascading gently between mountains winding wildly absolute
life's design

appearance

moments defined

seconds upon seconds

vibration

radiation

shaping warmly minutes

minutes brilliantly exploding into hours hours patiently elongated vertically climbing willfully arriving unrestrained at dawn a day

months tumble bye

adding one by one

years manifesting

equating possibility

free be

yea

and all this

i do with mind

moments expressing spontaneously creating illusions

within illusion

the energy unknowable

within release

as one

accepting

i am accepted

balancing effortlessly

riding the energy

please do not shadow with poisoned thought

how easily provoked am i what is it that harms what harm do i call what thought projected reflected within this void

at first

it's like being slapped in the face it has always been the me too strong to bend restricted unable to flow

there have been huge jumps conceptually what hides quietly in the mind what is our will really

what is intention

i'm like all of you i've done my best
i've done my worst

i feel blessed all doors open away from ideas of the me portals of thought conceptual design's beyond this current manifestation we create illusion

when we awaken to this concept then peace love balance may become real

i want to be hungry i want to be empty everything is as it should be the absolute manifest regardless of measure's tool quiet reflection balancing vacant reflection accepting balance is the only way to heal dis-ease

cascading energy entangled particles arising spontaneously

this does not need to be such drama when you realize just who we fight smile
then release
give it no more thought allow life's blessing

my directional twist moves inward compressing into one may i suggest what we are exploring is self

how do we weave our design attempting life too define

how do we define higgs boson separation is illusion space is illusion

this is energy manifest

the longer i hold it the deeper down the rabbit hole thought travels
the wheels have fallen off free falling tripping head over heels awakened to the dream i wish to have no base i wish to have no definition i wish to free

i slip eloquently
cascading observer cradled warmly within one

fuck
what's up with this

bloodied by battles of the mind

what does the i
hang onto

this is what is meant awakening

to be filled

it's ok
at one moment we awaken

why did the prince witnessing suffering
lay down defined life

why did Jesus wash the feet of a servant

what might these vision's manifest

again

when i understand the metaphor i am free

no end

walk free

let the energy come let the energy go to which thought we give focus feeling

reflected with eyes

what if we look see then speak as if it was creation the expression of life is a constant state of manifestation energetic wave lengths radiating within void

we dance playfully springing gracefully into being it is the mind that sees what we see as out there arises within

there is no other there is no mind

manifest here

to the absolute

coloring world
our will to define

what do i want to be which conceptual plane shall i inhabit

i am at peace when self is known

please wake up

what i see i give

i know
i don't want to believe

i must except there is no reality
there are realities
only

such an interesting sketch what have i created with mind

it seems so real

warmed blood pooling stretching beyond the edge energetic pulse exploding a glorious design

allow the weaver to weave give no thought to it

we
the vivid thread blended effortlessly allied within absolute love life's tapestry expressing spontaneously particle upon particle

your world is your world i'm ok with that knock knock on the fucking door ask to enter
be life
always present always balanced always accepting

i don't want to be sick anymore i want no identification i want to splash upon life's screen i mean no ill will i'm just talking to myself

i collapse upon self we are life
i am life

when you forgive

what do you feel

you understand the experience how do we keep coming here

slightest vibration arising being has become a sober moment

long forlorn this candy we eat

i believe love
i feel love
i am love

may i be

i guess

question
in what manner do i respond to the self

ask what energy am i expressing

this not hard
absolute

it is the me
generating thought manifesting feeling creating response

leave ego
far from mind

with no reason
with no identification

allow life

filling the void

i've generated pain
i know the hell
of which you speak the body knows better than mind what it needs

we need listen with love

we see this
and miss our root
the connection

and see other separation

a fixed possibility our minds envision

what is consciousness of what are we aware which possible probability do we bring into consciousness stare into the void

be now

now be against this that stop pushing pulling eventually it leaves consciousness

how do we feel we focus energy vibrating void returning it's gift to sender

that which seen

when i join peering contently into void have no reaction
flow gently allow know no resistance know no force

sometimes i find self crashing into life
why do i call the struggle
really
jut leave it outside mind give it no thought
release to life balance
accept
now

struggle is my creation what my mind applies to life where do i live

what is body
what is mind

there is no name which may describe

life is energy
the dream we are dreaming the energetic realization one energy
one

no separation
all are one one is all

life and death are illusion
as it arises balance as the observer

how to see through the eye's of god
see god in all

it is the self
begging
to move beyond

a day will arrive where we know everything awakened to nothing a perfect day it shall be

somehow i just release
acceptance settles
when i walk away from the war leave it outside mind

what i ask for

i may imagine love

is our natural state absolute acceptance

how things come to be this is illusion
what we give we receive that's it

we are energy a possibility expressed

may we fill the glass by confrontation if so what or who should we confront

i have spent a life confronting

then i realized there is nothing to confront but my mind

when i look out
life

realize peace
not a concept
the feeling
feel peace

realize love
feel love

anti aging

if someone is trying to sell you anti aging oil please celebrate

hold this energy within hand smile politely as you bow then with all tender care gracefully

extend this message

age is illusion of mind energy attached to body may stillness be yours acceptance has a narrower conceptual frame work than love yet they are one of the same

the act of taking or receiving something offered favorable reception

approval

favor

the act of assenting or believing the fact or state of being accepted or acceptable acceptance of a theory

i just wish to share the gift there is no this life

there is life

last night
i was dreaming that i was dreaming it was extremely confusing pleasure in all worlds which seemed so real desires beginning cataclysmic orgasm
i remember thinking
am i awake no
this is a dream then

i am awake

when i'm aware
i'm focused realization of possibility

the tuning fork
focus
thought feeling creation i knew the mind the key i just did not realize how and in which way

really i just want to self actualize i believe this body mind will be to welcome divine life's possible probability

my awareness shifting sliding removing the me
from mind

i was busy attempting to fill to become

then i read
the vessel must be empty

relinquish self awaking to the self

every moment every breath

those things we consider wrong are aberrations of the mind just integrate

love is given

to what do i give love and how

so if this is all illusion

why see war
why see peace

why see poor
why see rich

why see old why see young

why see disease
why see health

remove these constructs

swiftly
side step ego's consciousness

be one

i'm playing with the reality of reality
yea
fucking with the mind

mind
what you wish
what energy is expressed what demons shall i fight by what are my concepts bound to be and aware

a graceful gift thanks

why do we dismiss happiness why do we dismiss balance why do we dismiss acceptance

surrendering soulfully to body mind

books are filled by the exploits

quiet mind
know stillness
surrender to one
awaken life
hold dear nothing
be
release

i am seeing it because i give it focus i react to it
i feel it i feed it

may we live whole believing separation how long
shall divide held slave

stumble tumble rumble firmly into balance and acceptance please believe

with every thought with every feeling
and that is this

i do mean that

till you get it right

it's about the ecstasy we give long so long a point transcends universe collapsing energy entangled balanced accepting radiant energy expressing possibility loves physical design find this within balance and acceptance try it

be ease totally accept all willfully

below are words i grew within brothers and sisters you can still stand tall be thankful for what you have

what is heaven what is nirvana
when you become aware you are there

from where do i arrive with a wink whisper smile i willfully forsake ego i transcend into one

nothing to push nothing to pull ease

you don't need anything to have made it if you see this you're already there when we have no need we are free

i think we should live closely with our thought perhaps then we may see many other ways may i will

absolute love

yes
living as energy not a body
not a mind

a glories illusion

oh what to be

let go of the idea of what or who you think you are
be free

love all

what i want to bring to this world i wish to strip away all that is ego i wish to free all

all i may is be exploration of consciousness

how may i say that i am you

i don't look out at this

i look within deep deeper

no separation exists

no distance to travel
we arise spontaneously into being decide where do you wish to live in some conceptual container or free

caught dreaming the dream what thought does

keep it simple

quiet

don't feed it
balance

don't feel it

illusion is the whole

what is home

this is wondrous
life

i'm taking concept for a ride i want to stay focused

radiant energy

i want to ride this like a wave every energetic pulse balancing as i may accepting as i may

there are moments
i land on the face

i ride wild pivoting spinning cascading within that we call space

just believe

...and be...

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

we use body mind

now focus

don't live there

let's step away from minds abyss settle for balance acceptance

where is our focus
we may focus on the consciousness of separation some divide some river calling longingly for the crossing

we may focus on the consciousness of one no where to go no what to be the chasm before vanishes quietly

we are the divide we are the river
we are the hero
we are one

what do you want to be

body mind

universe

some will know me as this some will know me as that i have expressed

worlds of energy

warmly tenderly

passionately violently

of this release

fault has no measure

letting you know

i feel you

i accept you

i find it strange

i really don't know how

at one i arrived

steps bitter sweet

tendered upon self

dancing

understanding nought stretching across energies field playfully ricocheting

aware

i love you

the illusion is the whole

let's explore possibilities of the infinite take a point

then watch what manifest's what we call into life our conceptual design our thought our feeling

release identification just become observer of consciousness

like a river energy flows bending twisting upon self to this balance to that accept

allow the energy to arise then let it go like riding a wave

we don't move through time we don't move through space we move through awareness i'd rather live as energy of the universe it has immeasurable depth expand your knowledge of self be the self no identity projected

why force self into container why am i this why am i that

thought's believed come to be

i am this i am that

be free of self love ya all all are

i will to see god nothing more nothing less

as god i see i am with balance
i am with acceptance

all illusion is strong it arises from our core thought
feeling reacting to the void

when you look out who do you see

is it other is it something come to harm
i know

arising by spontaneous arising
total release of ego
i am not

thank you

what the body needs is for the mind
to move out of the way what drives me what makes those wheels spin the methodical churning of a reality

beget to the me

i wish to leave no tracks i wish to ride within the wind i wish to flow with the river unto the acceptance of the sea

i release the illusion
this dream patiently fades wave upon wave of wondrous energy cascading flowing harmoniously

the whole is filled by all love has nothing to do with what's out there and everything to do with what arises within nothing in your world arises

hence be peace be acceptance that's all

sometimes the most difficult realization is the realization of how blessed all are i fell the warmth 999

higgs boson

it is done warmly greeted held in balance

where there is nothing all are found

from our beginning
the force of life
vital breath

wandering void
an expression of life

the idea would be to leave love
as the reminder of our being

i want to heal all release disease

end suffering
come to life

have no reflection
no design

god may i walk that way

what if i told you
a focus stronger
the collapsing of energy willfully into one leaving nothing outside

how shall i communicate here i play with the word i am the one

as are you the one who may fix your world

once i balance with that balance is all i see
acceptance is all i see the idea of need weakened

welcoming release

what the
is ego

seen as consecutive moments merged blended with magical precision may i walk always perched expressing balance always giving
abundance running wild

i want you to know all my secretes let me splash against the you
if there was no desire each concept pulls allowing possibility a statistical probability ya gota love math then not

times
equals nought

zero expands
a dynamic explosion
the concept of one

just be whole
give up identity balance upon thee ebbing upon crowing
energy given every moment allowed to rise every moment allowed to be feel no resistance surf life's energy

we don't see with eyes

radiating outward from core kissing warmly touching tenderly energy celebrating life

acceptance is a word

balance is a word

see the i in you
i am whole

what is what

that which is not

this dance i do
with the mind

absolute abundance realized i know it's difficult we are trained to believe that life happens to us

to understand life is responding to us

flying light-years above the turbulence periodically tipping brushing the minds playground i was here as this i was here as that eagles swift descent riding each energetic pulse pivoting left
swinging right moving with not against at seconds last breath full throttled ascent braking minds control

flying light-years above the turbulence

when i release all is released
need vanquished
which lie's before us strip thought of fear

some see cataclysm some see creation

i welcome all within my world knowing the value of acceptance you are as you are in my mind when i balance we are balanced when i accept we are accepted to love all become one

perspective is a matter of relationship the event has very little to do with the experience that is minds playground

don't require just release to life become a passenger

yeah i know scares the shit out of me too my image so ingrained as i see it in it's entirety viewing remotely

the connection weakened image fades from the many to one

thank you
i am filled by emptiness may i share the gift
thank you
may the wind carry the message

claim no title be simply glide past all seen with eye offer no resistance accept it
to live with god

what is this sadness from where does this arise an intergraded conceptual design pain and sadness exist with mind i want you to feel what i feel encompassed warmly balanced the thin thread life pushing drilling towards actualization my whole being boldly searching love she seemed to bend when i stiffened ghost's metaphorically speaking no moment may i shun for my road led to the one

and i you
we are

**.

what about the me needs to be controlled i understand rules however i have doubt many do containers held with no restructuring bind time appearing repeated over the over once more sequential data held in mind hit the reset flip the script let balance be let acceptance rein

Thank You

i don't believe
the me
the you all that i see is one

i had to look very hard i sought not difference but similarity with realization
i started seeing myself in all i relive the fall over and over anew
still the river wound wide the heart pulls seeking believing

the magic carpet mind tenderly penetrating creating moments focused on one

know god
thank

i fall down twisting within mind
pulled to the left pulled to the right tormented by my sight
the world i choose to believe i must look away seeking balance

living acceptance

i just need focus upon one time drips away as ice-cream on a warm day

space pulls inward as entangled particles collide

i pray all live as life the realization of i am seeking the fruit to keep my dream alive

i wish to be free
i will to be free releasing ideas of the me

why do i keep trying to be that which i am not identifying with this

this i know when i give a concept focus i give rise to the possibility exciting void creating vision

really i just want to see all life live free start the trip to freedom with understanding

the essential key to the release life has nothing to do with perceived need life is the force driving actualization claim no responsibility for creation of being

practice balance practice acceptance
and be

thankful
always

what does a slave

when we focus we add dimension to the void the wave is just a wave given no thought

it's energy breaks away endlessly crowning ebbing

flowing as flow generating no resistance you can only see slavery if your enslaved

it's about a focus
minds simple delusion give up eyes release mindful maps

stop please stop rebuilding the very same dream

play with time
stretch it out twist it over and over filling perceived need

climb the mountain you must remember humilities key
accept all as the self i will you to know the love i know

..

look not to need just give what you wish to receive love be

i did not create the mountain however

i did not create any of this however

what do i see with the mind which mental maps do i draw out what is there to fear what is there to love what is there to suffering what is there to balance what is the thought

release it all
and be

divinity is of mind

quiet the mind

play wisely with ego the idea i am

let life drive give this no thought

vanquishing slowly designs of mine

when i perceive need

the void has no choice except
